

Educator SMART Goal Sample – Technology in Education

Student Learning SMART Goal
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Individual <input type="checkbox"/> Team	In order to ensure scientific literacy, I will incorporate one learning task each quarter in which students will research to communicate scientific information ideas effectively using a variety of digital formats, so by the end of the 2012/13 school year, 80% or more of my students demonstrate proficiency according to the identified assessment tool.

Student Learning Goal(s): Planned Activities
Describe actions the educator will take to attain the student learning goal(s). Activities may apply to individual and/or team.
Action	Supports/Resources	Timelines, Benchmarks, or Frequency
Identify student performance level after the first task.	CC– gather relevant information from multiple print and digital resources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source and integrate the information avoiding plagiarism. NETs – communicate information effectively to multiple audiences using a variety of digital media and formats. HGEs – 3	Frequency – 1X/Quarter Process Benchmark – Development/refinement of assessment Outcome Benchmark – Analysis of student performance
Use results of the previous task to plan and adjust instruction in preparing for the next task.	Collaboration with media specialist and/or technology integrationist.	Frequency – after each task. Process Benchmark – analysis of student data with notes as to types of instruction necessary in preparing for next task. Outcome Benchmark – mini units or lessons that target areas of need
Disaggregate task data and identify the portion of students that met the standard.	Assessment results	Frequency: Each quarter Process benchmark: tracking form of each student Outcome benchmark: completed tracking form

Educator SMART Goal Template

Student Learning SMART Goal
<input type="checkbox"/> Individual
<input type="checkbox"/> Team

Student Learning Goal(s): Planned Activities
Describe actions the educator will take to attain the student learning goal(s). Activities may apply to individual and/or team.
Action	Supports/Resources	Timelines, Benchmarks, or Frequency